

Breell Dorman

Graphic Design Intern

Skills

Projects

Education

Awards

Breell Dorman

13364 Folly Trail Place
Ashland, VA 23005

804-728-7493

brekd816@gmail.com

Portfolio link: <https://breed2.github.io/breeartistry/>

Creativity, teamwork, management, level-headed, curiosity, enthusiasm, and drive, proficient in Adobe design software applications (Adobe Photoshop, Adobe InDesign, and Adobe Illustrator).

The Reminiscence Collection of Video Games Covers/ Virginia Commonwealth University

September 1, 2021 - October 25, 2021, Pollak Building, 325 N. Harrison St.

A book that discusses video games and their covers in depth. The book has over 100 book cover with a dedication, prologue, and reference page. The book cover was created in Adobe InDesign.

Crystal&Bites / Virginia Commonwealth University

July 7, 2022 - July 21, 2022, Pollak Building, 325 N. Harrison St.

A programmed fictional restaurant website named Crystal&Bites with a menu, signup, login, about, contact, and other features made for the final project of a month-long web design class.

Timeline of Indigenous Writers & Designers/ Virginia Commonwealth University

September 2022 - December 2022, Pollak Building, 325 N. Harrison St.

A collaborative project that includes a timeline and annotated bibliography concerning the backgrounds of Indigenous authors and designers. Organized and a team player by assisting my group members in knowing when their assignments were due.

Hanover High School/ High School Diploma

September 2016 - June 2020, 10307 Chamberlayne Road, Mechanicsville, VA 23116

3.80 weighted GPA

Virginia Commonwealth University / Graphic Design, Bachelor of Fine Arts (B.F.A.)

August 2020 - present, Pollak Building, 325 N. Harrison St.

Current GPA 3.87

Awarded a partial academic scholarship upon admission to Virginia Commonwealth University